

Woman on the Rise!

This year, Oregon Tradeswomen is celebrating Women in Apprenticeship Day (Thursday, November 16, 2017) as part of National Apprenticeship Week (November 13-17, 2017).

In an effort to highlight exceptional women in apprenticeship in Oregon, we are seeking nominations for the first "Woman on the Rise!" award. This award will be given by registered apprenticeship programs to a female apprentice who has shown exceptional skill in their craft, commitment to their community, and demonstrated leadership.

Please follow the instructions below to nominate a female apprentice!

Instructions:

1. Fill out the following application and return to Emma Brennan, Workforce Project Manager at Oregon Tradeswomen no later than 5:00 pm on October 6, 2017.
emma@tradeswomen.net
2. Please nominate 1 apprentice per application
3. Please include a photo of the apprentice you are nominating.
4. Save the date on your calendar and plan to present the award to your nominee:

November 16, 2017

5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Location TBD

Nomination Application:

Name:

Trade:

JATC:

Local (If applicable):

Company (If applicable):

Tell us how this female apprentice has illustrated excellence in her trade:

Explain how this female apprentice has shown leadership skills:

Describe how you've seen this female apprentice has grown since beginning her apprenticeship: